The American Geriatrics Society13-1950856Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The AGS mission is to improve the health, independence and quality of life of all older people. The Society works to achieve this mission by: (1) seeking to expand the geriatrics knowledge base through initiatives that promote basic, clinical and health services research regarding the health of older adults; (2) working to increase the number of healthcare professionals employing the principles of geriatric medicine when caring for older persons by supporting the expansion of geriatric education in all applicable health professions, and promoting the development of systems of care and practice redesign that facilitates the provision of quality geriatric care; (3) seeking to recruit physicians and other healthcare professionals into careers in geriatrics through efforts to ensure that geriatrics is a viable, attractive, and rewarding career choice; (4) seeking to guide public policy through advocacy so policy supports improved health and healthcare for seniors; and (5) raising public awareness of the need for high-quality, culturally sensitive geriatric healthcare so an empowered, proactive public can help drive improvements in the quality of care that older persons receive.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

The annual educational meeting, educational seminars and other related geriatric training courses designed to inform the geriatric health care professional on current medical issues and other related topics in the medical care of older adults and raising public awareness of the need for high quality culturally sensitive healthcare so that an empowered, proactive public can drive the improvement in the quality of care that older persons receive.
